Agreed Text of Tax Treaty

The Chief Minister has written to the Speaker of the Parliament, Adolfo Canepa, providing him with a copy of the agreed text of the Tax Treaty between Spain and Gibraltar.

Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar is therefore now able to release the agreed text of the Tax Treaty between Spain and Gibraltar.

An explanatory note is also attached.

The Minister for Europe will now also send a copy of the signed Treaty to the House of Commons.

The Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs has today also provided copies of the Tax Treaty between Spain and Gibraltar to relevant Spanish parliamentarians.

The Chief Minister, said: "I am very pleased to now be able to publish the agreed text of the Tax Treaty agreed between Spain and Gibraltar. Publication will enable potentially affected tax payers to understand how best to structure their affairs and regularise their positions going forward. Additionally, we are also providing a simpler explainer text to assist."

Notes to Editors

The Chief Minister of Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar has also today recorded a video explainer of the main issues in the Tax Treaty. This is available on the Government's social media sites. The text of the Chief Minister's answers is provided for editors ease of reference.
