Extract from Employment Regulations, 1994. Regulation 15A

Application of regulation to detached workers.

15A. (1) Where a detached worker is an entitled "worker"–

- (a) by virtue of falling within one of the paragraphs of regulation 6(4); or
- (b) because his employer is an employer who, by virtue of the application of the law of the European Union or of the European Economic Area is entitled to provide services in Gibraltar, the employer shall notify the Director no later than five working days before it is proposed that the detached worker commence temporary employment in Gibraltar.

- (2) A notification under sub-regulation (1) shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee, and shall be in writing and shall include sufficient details of the employer and the detached worker to enable the Director to satisfy himself that the detached worker in respect of whom the notification is made, is employed by the employer in the State of establishment of the employer and has the benefit of the relevant provisions in that State in respect of industrial injury insurance and medical expenses.
- (3) Where the Director is satisfied that the detached worker in respect of whom notification has been made is employed in the State of establishment of the employer and has the benefit specified in sub-regulation (2), the Director shall so advise the employer in writing.
- (4) An employer who causes a detached worker to perform work in Gibraltar prior to receiving the written notification specified in sub-regulation (3) and the person to whom that employer is providing a service (except where that person is a private householder) shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction by a fine on level 3 on the standard scale.
- (5) Where the detached worker is an entitled worker regulations 4, 5, 6 (except sub-regulation (4)) 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 15 shall not apply.
- (6) Regulation 14 shall apply subject to the variation that the reference shall be to regulation 15A in place of regulation 11.
- (7) Where an employer proposes to use a detached worker in Gibraltar and that detached worker is not an entitled worker, the provisions of regulation 7 shall apply as if references in that regulation to a proposal to engage a worker were references to proposals to use a detached worker.
- (8) The provisions of these regulations shall apply to a person to whom sub-regulation (7) applies subject to such variations as are necessary to substitute for references to a worker references to a detached worker.

The application must be completed IN FULL in conjunction with the documentation listed below and submitted to the Department of Employment not later than 5 working days before the start date of employment.

1. A1 form* in respect of the detached worker
Available to the contracting-out employer through the Social Security Services the employer is established*
2. Employee's Passport/ID (Certified True Copy)
3. Employee's Tax Code from the Income Tax Office
4. Copy of Contract between contracting-out employer and employee
(in English and to include hours worked and salary)
5. Registration Fee. See Fees Table at www.gibraltar.gov.gi/department-employment/fees

We hereby understand that until the documents listed above are submitted and confirmation of the acceptance of the application received in writing the employee shall NOT commence temporary employment in Gibraltar.
