

RECYCLE Ka!

you can make a difference

What goes in the brown bin?

All organic waste which is any material that is biodegradable and comes from either plant or animal sources. Biodegradable waste can breakdown easily in nature.

Some examples include: leftover fruit and vegetables, scraps of meat and fish, the shells of eggs, seafood and nuts, coffee grounds, tea bags, and small garden waste such as leaves and flowers.

Department of the Environment,
Sustainability, Climate Change and Heritage

HM Government of Gibraltar