DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of answering questions 8(f) to 8(j), the following information provides guidance on actions which may constitute war crimes, crimes against humanity, genocide, or terrorist activities.

This guidance is not exhaustive. The full definitions of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide can be found in Schedule 2 of the International Criminal Court 2007 at www.gibraltarlaws.gov.gi/articles/2007-28o.pdf . It is your responsibility to satisfy yourself that you are familiar with the definitions and can answer the questions accurately.

War crimes

Grave breaches of the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 committed against persons or property including wilful killing, torture, extensive destruction and appropriation of property not justified by military necessity, unlawful deportation, the intentional targeting of civilians and the taking of hostages.

Crimes against humanity

Acts committed as part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against any civilian population, with knowledge of the attack. This would include offences such as murder, torture, rape, severe deprivation of physical liberty in violation of fundamental rules of international law and enforced disappearance of persons.

Genocide

Acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group.

Terrorist activities

Any act committed, or threat of action, designed to influence a government or intimidate the public and made for the purpose of advancing a political, religious or ideological cause and that involves serious violence against a person; that may endanger another person's life; creates a serious risk to the health or safety of the public; involves serious damage to property; is designed to seriously disrupt or interfere with an electronic system.

Organisation concerned in terrorism

An organisation is concerned in terrorism if it commits or participates in acts of terrorism; prepares for terrorism; promotes or encourages terrorism (including the unlawful glorification of terrorism); or is otherwise concerned in terrorism.
